

President's Notes by Beverly Weaver

The PPWG Board has requested that three changes to the By-laws be presented to the guild membership for approval. Those changes are published in this newsletter (see page 8). Please read them and be ready to discuss them and vote at the April meeting.

We had a large and lively group in the library for the Question and Answer session at the March meeting. I am looking forward to another big turnout next month. I will be contacting a couple of members to wear the 'ASK ME' badges next month and spend a short time in the library after the regular meeting ends. So, bring your questions and we will attempt to find the right book or person to help you.

The Guild has ordered an 8-shaft Schacht Baby Wolf with the stroller option and with 3 reeds for future rental to PPWG members. The loom is expected to be available in late April. We offer thanks to Edna Devai who will donate her 'wolf trap' to the guild to use with the loom, to Sandy Hutton who has offered to make a cover for the loom to protect it while it is being stored or moved, and to Emily Jones and her husband who will make space to store the loom at their house. The Board will make a decision about monthly rental charges and possible deposit before the loom is rented.

I will be looking forward to seeing some of you at the Michael Rohde workshop and the rest of you at the meeting on April 8th. Happy weaving, spinning and dyeing!

Vice President's Notes by Ellen Alderson

Donna Brown has just emailed that she will be adding the May 20 date to her workshop offering at Table Rock Fiber Studio. She had supplied us with a full description of the class and registration form (see page 7). So much interest has been expressed in her workshop that she will now have the two dates on which to take her class.
