Entry is open to all Colorado artists presenting original works in the area of traditional and contemporary fiber art to include, but not limited to: silk painting, silk fusion, wool felting, dyeing, painting, stitching, dissolving, surface techniques and embellishment where fiber is the basis of the work. Non-traditional quilt art will be considered. Three-dimensional fiber art is acceptable. Size limits apply. Minimum size requirement is 11" X 14". Maximum should not exceed 60" on any one side. Work must have been created within the past two years. Prizes awarded.

Wearable Treasures: The Art of the Garment

August 7-29, 2009

Wearable Treasures is an exhibit of clothing and accessories for every day or special occasions. Costumes are not included in this exhibit. We are looking for wearable art, not 4-H or State Fair type clothing. This is your chance to be creative and showcase your special area. This might include silk screening, embroidery, beadwork, weaving, etc. Ribbons will be awarded. This exhibit is open to all Colorado artists wishing to exhibit their original wearable art. Work must have been created within the past two years All work must be original.
