Peter Collingwood: Hot Shot Weaver with the Big Bang Loom

By Wendy Morris and Stacey Harvey-Brown

Peter Collingwood was scheduled to appear as keynote speaker at the Complex Weaver's Seminar at Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida last summer. His declining health prevented him from traveling, however, so Wendy Morris and Stacey Harvey-Brown, went to him. This two-part DVD was the result of that visit. The first DVD has an interview with Peter and the second shows Peter giving a walking tour of his studio.

Sandy Hutton, who attended the Complex Weaver's Seminar, is sharing her copy of the DVD with the guild for this special program.

Notes From Your President by Linda Shaffer

The stash sale at the December meeting was a successful event for everyone. Thanks to everyone that brought items to sell and everyone that shopped, we added $293.65 to our general operating fund. That is almost enough for two program fees or for miscellaneous expenses that always seem to pop up. So, don't get rid of your unloved stash stuff, save it for next year's sale and it will become someone else's treasure.

Special thanks to Catie Kiley for organizing the potluck and to everyone for participating. Also, a special thank you to Catie and Emma Greek for cleaning up the kitchen afterwards.
