

Library News by Bev Weaver

Thanks to Judy Gearhart for donating the following to the PPWG library:

A Beginner's Guide to Naalbinding (book and CD) by Erika Thomenius

Thanks to Doreen McLaughlin for donating the following book (in Swedish):

Vävboken, uträkning uppsättning monterning by Eriksson, Gustavsson and Lovallius

Thanks to Susan Bowman for donating three books from her collection:

American Spinning Wheels by David A. Pennington and Michael B. Taylor

The Care and Feeding of Spinning Wheels by Karen Pauli

The Weaving Roses of Rhode Island by Isadora Safner

Don't forget that the PPWG library has several index volumes, including the ones for Handwoven and Spin-Off magazines and The Clothing & Textiles Arts Index volumes edited by Sandy Hutton. The internet can also help you find the articles that you may need for a specific topic.

Website News by Jane Rock Constanza

The modern interpretations of the coverlet project are in their own gallery on the PPWG website. They are cross-linked with their historic counterparts. The overall coverlet online project has been very well received, and as of Dec 20, has had over 800 visitors. YAY!

Directory Changes

Heather Hubbard's telephone number should be: 495-1873

Marla Naninga's e-mail address is: nan425m@comcast.net

Major Workshop Update

There are only 3 more places available for the workshop. Diane should have the drafts and materials lists for the participants by the January meeting. The drafts will not be limited to 3 shafts, in fact, one draft is for 24 shafts.
