Dottie W. introduced Cindy Ruesink, the instructor at the major workshop on three-shaft weaving and the presenter of today's program narrow woven bands. In celebration of the guild's 50th anniversary, Judy G. asked members to stand according to when they joined the guild. Barb Byerly joined 37 years ago in 1972, the oldest member present and Diane Fabeck joined 35 years ago in 1974 the second oldest member present. Barb and Diane received gifts from the guild in celebration. Judy G. announced that scrapbooks are on tables in the back of the room. Doreen informed members of the steps needed to place an ad in the guild newsletter stressing that the treasurer will require payment prior to placement of the ad in the following newsletter. Susan Bowman announced that the nominating committee is still looking for a recording secretary, hospitality chairperson, a co-librarian, and a sample coordinator. Connie Franz announced that classes are still available at the Estes Park Wool Market on June 11 and June 12, 2009. The classes will be on the web site soon and sign up will begin in March 2009. Catie K. needs volunteers to sign up for May hospitality. Judi Arndt announced that the new Avenir Museum of Design and Merchandising will have an opening reception scheduled for Thursday, April 9, 7 to 9 p.m. at the University Center for the Arts. This event is free and open to the public. The newsletter will have further information regarding the opening and directions to the museum. Robin Wilton thanked all those present who donated placemats for the Empty Bowl Event. Placemats will be accepted until February 28, 2009. Following show and tell, the meeting adjourned at 10:40 a.m.

Advertising in the PPWG Newsletter

Anyone who wants to run an ad in the newsletter should send a print version of the ad to the Advertising director, Kathleen Orr, 2115 West Colorado Avenue, Colorado Springs, CO, 80904, along with a check or money order, made out to "PPWG" (see last page of newsletter for ad rates). Kathleen will then ask the advertiser to email the ad to her. She will then forward the electronic version of the ad to the Newsletter Editor and send the payment to the Treasurer, Barb Byerly.

Please note: the PPWG board has decided that ads are not announcements, and ads will not be sent out in a mass email by our Announcement director, Marisa McMillen.

Ads have the same deadline as other submissions to the newsletter - the 20th day of the month. So, if you want to get an ad in the April newsletter, you need to have your ad and payment submitted to Kathleen before the 20th of March.
