

May Program

Jacquard Weavers

Presented by: Jan Thomas

The Speaker

Jan Thomas is going to present "Jacquard Weavers". She will be exploring the history of jacquard weavers and their families as well as migration routes of weavers and their wares. Jan hails from Ohio, is a dedicated volunteer with the Pioneer Museum, and has been involved in historical textile research for years. She also does textile stabilization for the Museum.

The Lunch

To finish this exiting year in style, we will be gathering for lunch at the Margarita at Pine Creek (see directions below). They are offering a light fare, soups and salads, couple of specials, fabulous freshly baked bread and dessert. Depending on orders, lunches range from $13-17. Please note that tips are included in the check. The restaurant encourages payments of cash (exact change) and checks to speed up the process, however all kinds of payment methods are welcome.

Although ample parking is available, you may want to consider carpooling.

If you have not have a chance to sign up, you can still do so by either e-mail: edna_joseph_devai@msn.com or by calling 303-681-0300. Edna will call in the headcount on Wednesday prior to our meeting.
