

Library News by Debra Scott

Two more fabulous donations were made for the library raffle- a silk bookmark handwoven by Sandra Rude (juried into the Living with Beauty Show) and a wooden shuttle pin. Both donations were from Susan Bowman. Thank you Susan!! These were added to the other wonderful donations of a scarf, handwoven and donated by Heather Hubbard; a bag, handwoven and donated by Bev Weaver; and a towel, handwoven and donated by Sandy Hutton. The raffle will be held at the May meeting. Tickets are $1.00 each or 6/$5.00.

There are two new books that have been purchased for the library:

Favorite Scandinavian Projects to Weave by Tina Ignell

Ikat II by Lydia Van Gelder

Northern Lights News by Jane Rock Costanza

Is it possible that May is upon us? April showers bring May flowers, so it is said. They also bring the arrival of the PPWG Northern Lights Study Group's bag challenge which will take place at the May guild meeting. During the Northern Lights April meeting, the group shared a sneak preview of bags made by its members and all are looking forward to stiff competition from other members of PPWG. Prize ribbons have been handwoven for 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and Honorable Mention. In addition, an exciting array of prizes that include several gift certificates will be awarded for each of the foregoing. Prizes can and may also be awarded at the Judges' discretion for:

Best use of Color

Best use of hand dyed materials

Best use of handspun

Best use of recycled materials

The Wackiest

PPWG Northern Lights Bag Challenge Entry Form

Northern Lights: Reflections

Name: _____

Bag Dimensions: _____

Materials:

---

---

---

---

Brief statement as to how this bag is representational of the theme (i.e., the inspiration):