

Meeting Minutes by Carole Stewart

President, Beverly Weaver called the meeting to order at 9:35 am. The minutes from the September meeting were approved with no additions or corrections. First Vice President, Sarah Richards reported on the sign up for the November workshop. December will be the potluck and stash sale. The proceeds from the sale will go to the guild. Kathleen Cook is to give the program about Acadian Weaving. Secretary, Carole Stewart read a letter from the State Fair that thanked the guild for sponsoring prizes. A list of those who won was included. Treasurer, Sandy Hutton gave her report. The funds were received from Vanguard in regard to closing that account. Other details from the report are in the newsletter. Membership Secretary, Dottie Weir introduced Ardis Jordhl. Ardis was a member of the guild several years ago. Membership renewals continue to come in to Dottie.

Standing Committee Reports: Demonstrations, Peggy Doney asked members to keep the date of Saturday, Dec 3rd open to demonstrate at the Pioneer Museum. Volunteers will be needed for any amount of time between 10 am and 3 pm. She will have the sign up sheet for weavers and spinners at the next meeting. Hospitality, Barb Byerly asked members who are bringing food to arrive early to help set up and then to take what is left home and help clean up. Major Workshops, It was reported that the Fall Spinning Workshop was a success. The January workshop, 'It's in the Warp: Color and Design in Rep' by Rosalie Neilson is full but has a waiting list. A handout was given to participants. Newsletter, Doreen McLaughlin read a statement about her role as editor. It prompted a serious discussion about what to edit and what not to edit and what her role is in the process of putting the newsletter together. This discussion will be continued at the next board meeting in November. Samples, Catie Kiley still has empty spaces to fill. She requested that people sign up. Website, It was reported that the website Members Only section had a new password as of October 1st. Last year's newsletters were put in the public section. Yearbook, Susan Bowman passed out the yearbook to members who were present. She asked people to let her know of any changes and she will publish them in the newsletter. Emily Jones sold enough ads to cover the cost of the yearbook this year.

Old Business: Shuttles in Boulder will host the Kumihimo Workshop by Rosalie Neilson. It will be held the weekend after the Rep Workshop. No new business. Announcements: Maryse Levenson let the guild members know about the Pikes Peak Studio Tour on November 12th and 13th. Colorado Weavers Day (CWD) will be held on May 19th 2012 in Golden CO. The CWD web site should be up by mid December. The Alternative Craft Fair is October 22nd. Distaff Day will be held on January 14, 2012. FRFA sale will be the weekend before Thanksgiving. The Denver Art Museum will have a garment exhibit of Yves Saint Laurent. There is also a Bamboo exhibit. An Asian Art exhibit called Threads of Heaven will start October 30th. It is clothing from the Beijing Opera. Show and Tell. The meeting was adjourned at 10:20 am. The program Shape, Form and Finish by Jennifer Lissen and mini-workshop followed the meeting.

Left: Heather Hubbard's towels from organic warp based on Weaver Rose's profile drafts.

Right: Carole Stewart's hand spun and hand dyed yarns.

