

Challenge for 2007 –

Something for the Table or a Towel

Heather Hubbard

Bring your Challenge items for exchange to the September meeting.

With all the other things going on in the Guild this year you remember the challenge don't you? The Challenge for 2007 is something for the table of a towel. If you are weaving place mats or napkins then submit a pair (2).

Items will be exchanged by random drawing at the September meeting.
